NARRATIVE SUMMARY

The Battalion continued search and destroy operations from company patrol bases in North-western Lancaster II AO. On 1 September patrols from Companies "K" and "M" made contact with three groups of NVA of 5 to 15 men resulting in 8 NVA KIA confirmed. On 2 September Company "K" was shelled with 334 rounds of 60mm and 82mm mortars and 19 rounds of 130mm artillery without casualties.

On 3 September Company "L" was shelled with 172 rounds of 60mm and 82mm mortars and 25 rounds of 130mm artillery. There were no casualties. Counter-battery fire resulted in 4 secondary explosions on enemy mortar positions. Immediately following the NVA prep fires, an estimated force of 2 companies assaulted Company "L". The assault was easily repulsed with 2 minor casualties to Company "L" as the assaulting force was hit with approximately 300 M-26 grenades before they had an opportunity to open fire. Searches of the area revealed 11 NVA KIA confirmed and 19 weapons captured, of which three were 3 RPD type 56 Machine Guns that had not been fired.

There was only one contact from 4 September through 6 September as a tropical storm greatly restricted movement. From 7 September to 8 September the Battalion maneuvered into position for a sweep through the low ground to the Northwest in conjunction with operations by the 1st Battalion and 2nd Battalion, 3d Marines on Mutter's Ridge to the North. There was no enemy contact of note, but several new complexes of fighting holes and bunkers were discovered in various stages of construction.

From 9 September through 11 September the Battalion advanced with three companies on line to the Northwest: Company "I" on the South, with Company "M" and Company "K" on line in that order to the North. The NVA resisted the advance with dug in troops, 60mm and 82mm mortars and artillery fires. All units received indirect fires: Company "K" was attacked by small groups of NVA from Mutter's Ridge and Company "I" was resisted by an estimated Platoon (Rein) of NVA in bunkers in their zone. Company "I" received approximately 105 rounds of 60mm and 82mm mortars and had 1 KIA and 33 WIA. Company "I" suffered 3 KIA and 13 WIA from small arms fire while getting 7 NVA KIA confirmed and 1 NVA POW. Six weapons were captured and 1 M-16 lost. Company "K" received approximately 40 rounds of mortar fire without casualties. There were 2 KIA and 6 WIA from small arms and automatic weapons and rifle grenade fire, and 11 NVA KIA confirmed. Company "M" received 120 rounds of 60mm and 82mm mortars and suffered 2 KIA and 35 WIA. Company "L" received 28 rounds of mortar and 12 rounds of 130mm artillery without casualties.

The Battalion retired on 12 September and returned to Camp Carroll on 13 September without incident. Company "L" remained in position as security for FSB Bird which was under construction at their position. From 14 September through 30 September the Battalion was assigned security in the 3rd Airborne Division's area of operations. There were no contacts or ground

The enemy continued to pour in sporadic SAF until 040116H when contact was broken. The area was checked at first light revealing 9 NVA KIA, 1 CSWC, 4 CSWC, and assorted documents identifying the 7th Co, 2nd Bn, 3rd Div. 4 rounds of suspected 130mm artillery from an unknown location. At 111600H 1/3/3 received 45 rounds of 82mm mortar from the vicinity of XD947605 and XD937605. At 161915H 40 observed approximately 90 NVA vicinity of YD124552 and called in an air strike with unknown results. At 221000H 1/3/3 vicinity of XD947605 found 1 Soviet Flame Thrower, LPO-50 (Man Pack), complete with fuel tanks and accessories. The Flame Thrower had been abandoned about 100 meters from Kilo's position and appeared to have been lying on the ground about 2-3 weeks before being discovered.

Again as during the month of August, the Battalion discovered and destroyed many bunkers and fortified areas in our AO, which were mostly newly constructed or under construction, indicating the enemy's desire to build up and occupy positions in the 3d Marines AO before the monsoons arrive and hamper their routes of infiltration into this area from the north. At the close of the month the enemy still appeared to be building up their forces in these areas for possible operations against friendly forces during the monsoons. Also there has been an apparent increase in their use of 82mm mortars and heavy artillery from the DMZ against the friendly forces operating in this area.

Listed below are the unit identifications as discovered from captured documents and/or the POW and a list of the total enemy weapons and equipment captured by the battalion during the month of September. In addition to the POW, there were 13 detainees picked up during the month which were all released as innocent civilians after being turned over to the 3d Marines ITT for disposition.
